

An International and Interdisciplinary Conference of FRAMAG Research Program

Ageing: Between Science and Politics

12th-13th March 2015
University of Luxembourg

Salle Tavenas
Campus Limpertsberg
102 avenue Pasteur
L-2310 Luxembourg

With a live translation french/english english/french

Thursday 12th of March

9h00 Coffee

9h30 Introductory speech by Dieter FERRING, University of Luxembourg.

SESSION 1

Framing Age as a Public Problem

10h-12h

Chair: Louis CHAUVEL, University of Luxembourg

Platon TINIOS, University of Piraeus, Greece & Manolis TZANAKIS, University of Crete, Greece

Vieillessement, représentations sociales et sécurité sociale en Grèce : Comparaison des approches 1920-2010. / "Ageing, Social Representations and Social Security in Greece: Compared Approaches 1920-2010".

Benoît EYRAUD, University of Lyon 2, France & Lucie LECHEVALIER HURARD, Paris XIII University, France

La limitation de la liberté d'aller et venir dans les établissements hébergeant des personnes âgées : autour de la construction d'un problème public et de la spécialisation des régulations juridiques. / "Limiting Freedom of Movement in Elderly Homes: About the Construction of a Public Problem and a Specialisation in Legal Regulation".

Cécile COLLINET & Matthieu DELALANDRE, Paris-Est Marne-La-Vallée University, France

La référence aux savoirs scientifiques dans les politiques de prévention du vieillissement. Le cas des recommandations en matière d'exercice physique pour améliorer le bien être des personnes âgées. / "Reference to Scientific Knowledge in Ageing Prevention Policies. The Case of Physical Activity Recommendations to Improve Elderly Peoples' Well Being".

SESSION 2

Age in Sciences

13h15-15h15

Chair: Benoît MAJERUS, University of Luxembourg

Mark SCHWEDA, University of Göttingen, Germany & Larissa PFALLER, University of Erlangen, Germany

“Regimes of Hope” in Planning Later Life: Medical Optimism in the Field of Anti-Ageing Medicine.

Dominique BEHNKE, Institute of Contemporary History, Austria

Das Herz kann man warten wie einen Motor. Altern in der Gerontologie der DDR. / The Heart Can Be Maintained Like a Motor. Ageing in the GDR's Gerontology.

Iris LOFFEIER, University of Luxembourg

A socio-history of the institutionalization of a field of knowledge : following the elderly through 19th, 20th and 21st centuries updates of the Dewey Decimal Classification.

15h15 Coffee Break

SESSION 3

Moral and Policies of Age

15h30-17h30

Chair: Susan BRAEDLEY, University of Carleton, Canada

Richard C. KELLER, University of Wisconsin-Madison, USA

Toward a Biopolitics of Old Age: Vulnerability and Vieillissement in Postwar France.

Magnus NILSSON, Karlstad University, Sweden

Nationalism and the Moral Economy of Ageing.

Alexandre LAMBELET, ÉESP, Switzerland

Entre misérabilisme et populisme : le vieillissement. / “Between Miserabilism and Populism: Ageing”.

Friday 13th of March

SESSION 4

Making the Measure of Autonomy

8h45-10h45

Chair: Iris LOFFEIER, University of Luxembourg

Bénédicte RIVET, University of Lyon 2, France

« L'Allocation Personnalisée d'Autonomie : de la procédure imposée à l'accompagnement situé ». / "Allocation personnalisée d'Autonomie": from the imposed procedure to a situated support".

Nicolas BELORGEY, CNRS/SAGE, France

Les indicateurs de la «dépendance» en France : construction et usages d'un problème public. / "Old-Age Dependency Indicators in France. Construction and Uses of a Public Problem".

Solène BILLAUD, INRA, France & Jingyue XING, EHESS, France

Créer l'interprofessionnalité médico-sociale par les politiques du vieillissement. / "Creating Medico-Social Interprofessionality Through Old-Age Policies".

10h45 Coffee Break

SESSION 5

Ageing and Innovation

11h00-13h00

Chair: Thibault MOULAERT, REIACTIS

Cécile ROSENFELDER, University of Strasbourg, France

Les habitats alternatifs dans la gestion de la «dépendance» des personnes âgées : nouveaux modes d'accompagnement du grand âge ? / "Alternative Housing in Managing Elderly Peoples' Dependency: New Ways of Supporting Old Age?".

...

Aske Juul LASSEN, University of Copenhagen, Denmark
Active Ageing technologies.

Susan BRAEDLEY, University of Carleton, Canada
Beyond the comfort zone: Re-imagining the nursing home as collective and equitable.

13h Lunch Break

SESSION 6
Ageing Between Science and Politics
13h45-16h

Chair: Hervé HUDEBINE, Université de Brest, France

Antía PÉREZ-CARAMÉS University of A Coruna, Spain
Building a Demographic Consensus: Social Research and the Political Production of Ageing in Galicia.

Reinhard MESSERSCHMIDT a.r.t.e.s. Graduate School for the Humanities, Cologne, Germany
Demographic Change as Dystopia – Contemporary German discourses on Aging between Science and Politics.

Nicole KRAMER Lehrstuhl für Neueste Geschichte, Frankfurt a.M., Germany
Die Entdeckung des „vierten Alters“ durch Gerontologie und Sozialpolitik in Westdeutschland, Großbritannien und Italien. / “The Discovery of the “Fourth Age” by Gerontology and Social Policy in West-Germany, Great Britain and Italy”.

16h Coffee Break

Getting there : From the airport : Take bus 16, change at the Railway Station.
From the railway station, take either bus 2, 3 or 4. Bus stop : Lycée Technique Michel Lucius.

www.mobiliteit.lu Tickets can be purchased from the driver 2€ and are valid 2 hours.

Scientific Board

Dieter Ferring
Martine Hoffmann
Hervé Hudebine
Lucie Lechevalier Hurard
Iris Loffeier
Benoît Majerus
Thibault Moulart
Sophia Stavrou
Isabelle Tournier
Dimtris Trimithiotis

Contact

framag.conference@uni.lu

Organizing Team

Iris Loffeier
Manon Pinatel
Sophie Richelle
Johanna Tietje

Thank you for registering before March 9th

Attending is free of charge

Coffee breaks are included for registered members of the audience